HAWAIIAN GAZETTE

AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO HAWAIIAN PROGRESS.

PUBLISHED AND EDITED BY

HENRY M. WHITNEY.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 31. No Laren advices have been received from Kailm this week. By the accounts received last week, it appears that His Majesty's health was more feeble than when he left Henolula, and of Remains-Courtesuse to Walpie; School. it is expected he will return in the steamer on Friday or Saturday. NEW Year again greets us with to morrow's dawn, and all will no doubt share the joy which its arrival imparts in every country. It is no new holiday, but was observed centuries ago among the Romans, where the custom of making gifts on the day originated. Among the ancient relics of pottery found to or near Rome is one preserved in the British Museum, on which is inscribed "A Happy New Year to You," in Latin. In the early centuries of Christianity, emperors received gifts on New Year, and though ecclesiastical councils condemned the custom, it has survived all opposition, and seems likely to last to the end

THERE seems to be a deep and wide-spread desire among the people that His Markery should name and proclaim His successor, as provided by the constitution. This act would tend greatly to remove a feeling of restless disquietude which prevails throughout the country regarding the succession, though every one hopes and prays that our Sovereign may live many years. No one but he has now any pre-emptive claim to the throne of Hawaii, and his choice must decide it-His Majesty, no doubt, has his preference in this matter, and should be name any one, we feel confident that his people will accept the nominee as the lawful heir-apparent to the throne, and be prepared to defend his or her claims to it.

THE CUSTOMS STATISTICS which we present on the third page, showing the exports of domestic produce for the year, exhibit a very favorable resait. Sagar shows a total of 23,129,101 pounds exported, a gain of over 6,000,000 of pounds as compared with 1872. Rice and paddy give a total export of 1,449,383 pounds. Coffee foots up 262.025 pounds; wool, 329.507 pounds; tollow, 609,855 pounds. The total exports for the year have amounted in value to $1,661,407; un increase of $315,822 over the previous. The receipts of the customs for the year have been $253.914.95, a falling off of less than $5,000. Altogether the foreign commerce of the Kingdom presents a more favorable balance sheet than was generally anticipated. An increase of thirty-six per cent. during one year, in the leading product of the Kingdom, sugar, is a significant fact, and shows the adaptedness of our soil to that product.

Old and New.

With this day ends the old year 1873, and with this number ends the 9th volume of the GAZETTE. volume 10 commencing with our next issue. The weeks, months and years slip by so swiftly that the new months and years arrive before most people are aware, and it is only the wide-awake who are always prepared with everything ready a whose, increme with the good will of the Hawathan of the responsibility of the r people are aware, and it is only the wide-awake the world's current record of events in as truthful and attractive forms us it is possible for us to do. We are fully aware of the task before us, and of the many imperfections attending the best consived intentions, and therefore ask the indulgence as well as the assistance of all who can aid in making our paper what it ought to be-a perect mirror of current events.

A word to the wise : those who pay for the GAZETTE in advance, or before a bill is presented to them, can have it for Five Dollars, as per totice elsewhere. Where the paper is charged, and bills sent out for collection, the price will be, as formerly, Six Dollars a year.

A New Enterprise

In anticipation of the resumption of the Aus-Walinku tralian and California steam line, Mr. Herbert, proprietor of the Hotel, proposes to issue a Traveler's Guide Book, giving a full description of the principal places of interest in this group, Renotate with such information as will make it valuable to tourists and others. ### Plant Trees.

Now, during our rainy season, is the time to start young trees, for fruit or ornament or shade. Plant them around your houses, scatter the seeds over the plains and along the roads and seashore. Wherever no trees are found now, there start them, for they will soon be a blessing to man and beast, and serve to attract the rain clouds as they pass our islands. Especially let them be planted around the school houses, where, in the future, the boys and girls may enjoy their grateful shade. Nothing will grow more rapidly than the samang or monkey pod, and no prettier shade tree can be found anywhere. For the roadside also it is well adapted, as its limbs stretch out in a dense shade. The trees should always be plantedijust inside the fence, never outside or in the road. The algaroba will grow in drier places and an acre. A specimen of this tree, not ten years Jones' residence in Nuusnu, which is now some sixty feet in hight.

The Tornado.

Last week we gave an account of the Virginiis, which was seized lately by the Spanish authorities in Cuba. Her captor, the Tornado, possesses an equally interesting history. She is a propeller, for a Confederate privateer. She was subsequently sold to the Peruvian government, but in 1865 was embargoed by the Spanish Minister at the Court of St. James, and the British authorities, dreading another Alabama, refused to let her proceed to sea. This was shortly before the capture of the China guano islands, off the coast of Peru, when Spain obtained $3,000,000 indemnity from Perg. The Tornado mounts 10 guns, and is about the size of the Albanna, viz: 1.400 to 1.500 tons. She has a crew of about 200 men. She is an iron vessel, bark rigged, and is reputed to be very swift.

Spirit of the Press.

The Advertiser, in its supplement, has an interesting letter detailing the proceeding of the European Convention, which met at Vienna in September to discuss the subject of Trees and Forests,-a subject which is engressing much attention and thought on the part of leading men of Europe and America. That something must soon be done here, by Legislative action, to arrest the vessels ready for service as speedily as possible. destruction of our forests, is very clear. But how There was nearly one million dollars drawn at to proceed to accomplish this object, and at the the same time cause no hardship or injustice to disbursing officers on the Eastern coast to meet personal rights, will require much thought and emergencies in fitting out vessels, and our governcareful deliberation.

Our sprightly juvenile cotemporary, the Punahow Journal, surprised its readers with a Christ- knowledged by Spain or our own country that mas " Supplement," which indicates not only enterprise but success.
